280 Main Street Fire Update

The investigation into the origin and cause of this two alarm structure fire continues.

Klamath County Fire District No. 1 personnel have received an engineer's report that details the structural stability of the building. Deputy Fire Marshals Scott Rice and Don Romano are working today to meet the requirements of the report. Once the building is safe for entry, investigators will start the investigation process.

More information will be released as the investigation continues.

If you have questions or desire an interview, please contact Deputy Fire Marshal Scott Rice at 541-885-2056.
